

NICOLE JAVORSKY

211-40 18th Avenue Apt 1F, Bayside, NY 11360

Cell Phone: (718)-541-2708

nicolejavorsky@gmail.com

www.nicolejavorsky.com

EDUCATION

Barnard College, New York, NY / Sept. 2014 – Present

Benjamin N. Cardozo High School, Bayside, NY / Sept. 2009 – June 2013

EXPERIENCE

Campaigns Intern at DoSomething.org / Feb. 2014 – Aug. 2014

DoSomething.org is one of the largest organizations for young people and social change. A DoSomething.org campaign is a fun, easy, and unique action that young people can take around a certain cause.

- Researched, brainstormed and wrote content for 15 campaigns around causes like animal welfare, environmentalism, physical health, and mental health
- Managed member inquiries with Zendesk (a customer service platform)
- Supervised two high school interns by assigning tasks and providing feedback

Founder and Co-President of Cubs for Coping / Sept. 2012 - Present

Cubs for Coping provides hospitals, homeless shelters, and eating disorder programs with handmade teddy bears.

- Recruited over 100 volunteers and organized three events for the volunteers learn how to create bears to donate
- Won a $1,000 grant from The Pollination Project and wrote the grant application
- Manage the social media accounts for the organization including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram

Copy Editor for School Newspaper The Verdict / Sept. 2010 – June 2012

- Managed other writers and worked with them to improve their articles
- Designed pages for the newspaper using Adobe InDesign
- Two articles published in the Daily News
- First place in Baruch College's Newsies! Awards for journalism

SKILLS.....

- HTML & CSS, Bootstrap, Google Apps, Adobe InDesign, Zendesk

REFERENCE

"In addition to her exceptional work ethic, I would also like to comment on Nicole's overall demeanor. She is a delight to work with; multiple colleagues commented on her admirable attitude and maturity. She provides and responds to constructive feedback in a helpful and positive way, and excels both in group projects and on her own."

– Hilary Gridley, Campaigns Manager, DoSomething.org